

Proposed changes from the current §91.03(C):

In the discretion of the Johnson County Animal Control, a person who violates any provision of ~~this~~any section of this Chapter for the first time may be given written notice of the ~~practices~~practice or conditions which constitute the violation and the enforcement authority shall in such instance direct remedies to such person where appropriate and provide a time period of no longer than 30 days within which to correct the violation(s). Failure of the person to correct the violations within the specified time period shall constitute evidence of a prima facie violation of this section, and at its discretion the Johnson County Animal Control Warden or Deputy acting as Humane Officer for the Town of Whiteland may issue local, county or state citations.
